Basic Needs Allowance Training

The Department of the Army is implementing a new monthly allowance called the Basic Needs Allowance, or BNA, to promote economic security for eligible Soldiers. BNA is intended to help larger military households with low income to better afford basic needs.

WHY TAKE THE TRAINING:

- Become more knowledgeable regarding additional financial management programs and resources Soldiers may be eligible to receive.
- Understand the process to screen, counsel, apply, certify, calculate payment, and recertify eligible Soldiers.

WHO SHOULD TAKE THE TRAINING:

- Commanders, division staff officers, designated Human Resource Officers, and Financial Readiness Program staff are required to take the training in accordance with Army Directive 2023-06 (Army Basic Needs Allowance Program)

TRAINING INFORMATION:

- Microsoft Teams
- CONUS and OCONUS times
